

New Zealand Land Treatment Collective ## CONFERENCE

31 March - 2 April 2020, Palmerston North

Distinction Coachman Hotel

IMPROVING OUTCOMES FOR LAND TREATMENT

Monday 30 March	Tuesday 31 March	Wednesday 1 April	Thursday 2 April
Workshop On-site Wastewater Management (OWMS) - all key stakeholders to discuss what is working and what isn't - progress a plan for the future	Conference - Day 1 International keynote - Mark Borchardt (USDA) Local keynote Delegate presentations	Conference - Day 2 National keynote Delegate presentations	Fieldtrip Palmerston North - land treatment locations
Evening Events
Social function		Conference dinner and awards

Trade Displays

The NZLTC are inviting exhibitors to purchase a trade display area. This is an ideal opportunity to showcase your business and land treatment technologies.

- sites are $500 each
- 10 sites available

Contact Bronwyn Humphries (NZLTC Technical Manager) to secure your site

bronwyn.humphries@esr.cri.nz

Sponsorship To view our conference sponsorship opportunities click here:

Venue accommodation rates

To view options click here:

Important dates

- Registrations and abstracts are now open
- Abstracts close - 14 Feb 2020
- Full papers due - 25 Mar 2020
- OWMS Workshop - 30 Mar 2020
- NZLTC AGM - 1 Apr 2020
- NZLTC Conference - 31 Mar - 2 Apr 2020

International Keynote - USDA approval pending

Mark Borchardt is a microbiologist who works for the US Agricultural Department (USDA) in Wisconsin.

His research includes septic system wastes and land applied livestock manure as related to pathogen contamination of groundwater and human health risks.

Registration click here:

Premier sponsors

Student Scholarship

Award sponsor

Northcott Research Consultants Ltd.